

Code of Professional Practice

At Intuition we are committed to providing our candidates and clients/partners the highest level of integrity, professionalism and dedication. We constantly train our consultants to the highest standards to ensure you receive the best practices for a contract or a permanent role whether you are a candidate or a client.

CANDIDATES:

1. All documents associated to your profile are stored and kept in a safe manner in order to ensure their confidentiality. We do not share your information with third parties without prior written consent.
2. Whether, face-to-face, video or teleconference, your interview will be preceded by our specialist consultants before any introduction to our clients.
3. Keeping you up-to-date with your application's progress is paramount to us. Our consultants will always ensure you are provided with swift and constructive feedback after each interview with our clients.
4. Our consultants are market experts and will always endeavour to provide you with insightful support and guidance to maximise your chances of successfully transform opportunities into new experiences.

CLIENTS:

1. You will only receive profiles and associated documents (CV & Synopsis) for candidates that have given their written consent to be represented by Intuition.
2. Each and every candidates presented to you will have been screened, interviewed and assessed by our consultants.
3. Our consultants will ensure that you receive objective and constructive feedback after each presentation or interview that you will conduct, facilitating a smooth transition through each phase of the process.
4. Providing insightful support and objective guidance along all stages of the process is one of our consultants' core focus. From the evaluation of your needs through the selection, offer and negotiation all the way through to final placement, our consultants will place their expertise at your service.